

Vaccination and Testing Requirements for voyages departing on 06.09.2022 and beyond for USA, Europe and UK
Vaccination Status	Definition by Country's Health Authority	Test Requirements for passengers aged 5+
		Voyages from USA, Europe and UK up to 15 nights cruise length	Voyages with Enhanced Guidelines [^]
Fully Vaccinated - voyages from USA* Please notice the special guidelines for cruises including Canada	Received primary series of COVID-19 vaccines with final dose at least 14 days before embarkation.	Testing not required. We recommend a COVID-19 test (Antigen or PCR) taken 3 days before departure.	COVID-19 Antigen or PCR test is mandatory and needs to be taken within 3 days before departure.
Fully Vaccinated - voyages from Europe & UK Please notice the special guidelines for cruises including Greece	Received primary series of COVID-19 vaccines with final dose at least 14 days before embarkation. A booster is required for all passengers aged 18+ whose final dose of an approved/authorized COVID-19 vaccine is older than 270 days before the end of the cruise.	Testing not required. We recommend a COVID-19 test (Antigen or PCR) taken 3 days before departure.	COVID-19 Antigen or PCR test is mandatory and needs to be taken within 3 days before departure.
Not Fully Vaccinated	Guests who cannot be vaccinated require a medical exemption for Canada (please see below).	COVID-19 Antigen or PCR test is mandatory and needs to be taken within 3 days before departure.	COVID-19 Antigen or PCR test is mandatory and needs to be taken within 3 days before departure.
Kids under 5 years do not require pre-travel testing. Attention: [^] Enhanced Guidelines Voyages include all voyages with 16+ nights, full Panama Canal transits, Trans-Ocean crossings; voyages that include a Canadian or Greek port do have special guidelines (please see below) * All Alaska voyages that include a Canadian port do have special guidelines (please see below)  * All voyages that include a Greek port do have special guidelines (please see below)

Vaccination and Testing Requirements for voyages including Canada
Vaccination Status	Definition by Country's Health Authority	Test Requirements for passengers aged 2+
Fully Vaccinated (Passengers aged 5+)	Received primary series of COVID-19 vaccines with final dose at least 14 days before embarkation. A booster is not required but strongly recommended.	PCR test taken within 72 hours before boarding, Antigen test taken within 2 days before boarding
Not Fully Vaccinated (Passengers aged 5+)	Guests 12 years of age and above are not able to enter Canada without medical exemption. Please submit medical exemption to Princess for approval before a booking can be guaranteed. Guests aged 5-11 are welcome to cruise without exemption.	PCR test taken within 72 hours before boarding plus Antigen test at terminal
Not Fully Vaccinated (Children aged 2-4)	Passengers are welcome to cruise.	PCR test taken within 72 hours before boarding plus Antigen test at terminal
Kids under 2 years do not require vaccination and pre-travel testing.

Vaccination and Testing Requirements for voyages including Greece
Vaccination Status	Definition by Country's Health Authority	Test Requirements for passengers aged 5+
Fully Vaccinated (Passengers aged 5+)	Received primary series of COVID-19 vaccines with final dose at least 14 days before embarkation. A booster is required for all passengers aged 18+ whose final dose of an approved/authorized COVID-19 vaccine is older than 270 days before the end of the cruise.	PCR test taken within 3 days before boarding, Antigen test taken within 2 days before boarding
Not Fully Vaccinated (children aged 5-11)	Passengers are welcome to cruise.	PCR test taken within 3 days before boarding, Antigen test taken within 2 days before boarding
Kids under 5 years do not require vaccination and pre-travel testing.

Vaccination and Testing Requirements for voyages from Australia
Vaccination Status	Definition by Country's Health Authority	Test Requirements for passengers aged 0+
Fully Vaccinated (Passengers aged 12+)	Received primary series of COVID-19 vaccines with final dose at least 14 days before embarkation. A booster is not required but strongly recommended.	PCR test taken within 72 hours before boarding, Antigen test taken within 24 hours before boarding (antigen tests can be brought from home)
Not Fully Vaccinated (Passengers aged 12+)	Vaccination and capacity restrictions apply. Guests aged 12 years or older who are not fully vaccinated require a medical exemption to sail. Please contact your Princess reservation team.	PCR test taken within 72 hours before boarding, Antigen test taken within 24 hours before boarding (antigen tests can be brought from home)
Not Fully Vaccinated (children aged 0-11*)	Passengers are welcome to cruise.	PCR test taken within 72 hours before boarding, Antigen test taken within 24 hours before boarding (antigen tests can be brought from home)
*With the exception of sailings to or from Western Australia, vaccination requirements do not apply to children aged 11 years and under. For sailings to or from Western Australia, vaccination requirements do not apply to children aged 4 years and under.		